

Housing and lifestyle in the --- past

In the past time families were large

House of a paesant

House of a wealthy resident

Coastal towns = houses
built in height

Inlands = Storey
houses

At the summer, members of family spent lot of time in the yard

Wine cellar on the ground floor

Tools

Hearth

Kitchen

Larger houses had living rooms

Partition walls

Mrs. Ivanka (1935): “ Boards on the wooden floor always squeaked.”

Bedroom

chest

bavul

Bedroom furniture

Toilets were outside the house.

lighting

Mr. Juro (1915): “I had a dwale in the garden, but those who didn’t have it had to go for acomulated water which was comune.”

Woman took care of house and children

- Mrs. Mare (1928): " Woman worked in the field too. Those who had small children, would go home to feed them. And than they would came back to finish the work. And the children helped too."

Man worked in the field

Donkies and mules were important animals

Some worked in a quarry

Mrs Luce: “We didn’t have any toys so we girls made dolls of the wool.”

- Traditional outfit was worn in special occasions

In ancient times people wore leather shoes

- In a coastal parts jewelry was mostly made of gold.

- Mr. Jure: “We ate what we had in garden.”

They mostly ate lettuce or cabbage and egg for the dinner.

THE END

Antonija Eterović
Ante Parunov
Antonija Mladinec
Albina Jahaj
Tamara Goić
Nikol Martinić
Lana Martinić
Elena Kusanević
Jure Martinić
Ivana Šeanić

MENTORI:
Ana Marčić
Lada Kuzmanić-Runje